CLARK PAVILION FESTIVAL OF SPEED 4 – 7 July 2019

The ultimate location for prestigious entertaining with prominent views over the most challenging point on the Hillclimb.

The Clark Pavilion is located on the dramatic Molecomb Corner – renowned for being the most challenging point on the Hillclimb and a spot where the hay bales are frequently put to the test, making it arguably the best vantage point from which to watch all the action.

The unique interior of the Clark Pavilion has been designed to be relaxed and stylish with light airy spaces coupled with memorabilia that celebrates the life of its namesake, Jim Clark; British Formula One driver and twice world champion.

The private trackside garden is a stunning place to enjoy a drink whilst being at the heart of all the Hillclimb drama and a great location to entertain and experience the ultimate day at the Festival of Speed.

Here's what you can look forward to:

- Admission entry to the Festival of Speed
- Table for the day in the stylish and exclusive Clark Pavilion
- Light breakfast
- Three course buffet lunch
- Afternoon tea
- Unlimited Champagne, beer, wine and soft drinks
- Forward car parking
- Event programme and radio earpiece.

FRIDAY, SATURDAY OR SUNDAY – £730.00 + VAT PER PERSON

TRACKSIDE PAVILIONS – OPENING DAY PACKAGE

FESTIVAL OF SPEED

4 – 7 July 2019

Located trackside within a private enclosure, the Trackside Pavilions offer unrivalled views with high-class hospitality.

Named in honour of American Grand Prix driver Dan Gurney, and American World Champion Phil Hill, the pavilions occupy one of the best viewing locations on the Hillclimb where the cars are building up speed for the blast past Goodwood House, a spot where a driver's skill can make all the difference to the race.

The opening day of the 2019 Festival of Speed will not only include the very latest road cars taking to the Hill, but also the chance to see some of the Festival's racing content for the first time over the weekend. The Hill and Gurney Pavilions are the perfect space to entertain clients, teams and guests either inside or out on the balcony, taking in the spectacle of the event.

No matter which option you choose, rest assured our team will look after your every need.

Here's what you can look forward to:

- Admission entry to the Festival of Speed
- Shared table for parties of under 10, private table for 10 guests or private pavilion for 30 guests, with balcony providing trackside views
- Light breakfast
- Three course buffet lunch
- Cake and scones
- Unlimited beer, wine and soft drinks
- Forward car parking
- Event programme and radio earpiece.
